

JARDINEROS de PLACITAS
REGULAR MEETING MINUTES

June 7, 2023

Opening Meeting

President Linda Lockett called the meeting to order at 9:30 am.

Linda welcomed members and guests.

Debbie Webster introduced representatives of our Community Service recipient organization for June, Watermelon Mountain Ranch, a Sandoval County no-kill animal rescue and adoption center. The representatives, Susie Lewis and her dog Sir Quincy, spoke about their wide array of services and facilities, and Susie thanked Jardineros for our ongoing support.

Vice President Janice Grann announced that our July 12 program at the library will be “Climbing Mount Everest,” by Dr. Mike Murphy.

Program

Janice introduced today’s speaker, art and antique appraiser/historian Ellen Castrone, who presented the program, “Appraising Fine Art, Furnishings, and Antiques.” Ellen demonstrated how appraisals are done, using three examples provided by Jardineros members.

Business Meeting

After a short break, Linda opened the business meeting at 10:55 am.

Janice thanked Refreshment Committee members Kathy Hays (lead), Karen Cox, Joan Chamier, Lynnette Fields, Charlotte Perry, and Tricia Lund.

She also thanked greeters Ivona McCrary and Chris Daul.

Officer and Committee Reports

Minutes: The minutes of the May meeting were approved.

Treasurer: Nancy Evans reported that the checking account balance as of the end of May was $9,274.37, which included $16.34 in income, and expenses of $602 for the post office box and our website. The saving account balance at the end of May was $3,784.59.

Corresponding Secretary: Sharon Arthur read thank you notes from St. Vincent de Paul and Animal Protection of New Mexico.

Audit Committee: Barbara Hill reported that she and Nancy Evans reviewed the 2022 Jardineros treasurer records and found them reasonable and complete with only a $1.92 error, which was corrected.

Community Service: Jacque Moise announced that she and Tina Thomas are collecting for Watermelon Mountain Ranch, and that the organization could also use towels.

History: Cathryne Richards presented the 2022 History Book to Linda Lockett. A copy also will be in the library lobby for members to review.

Programs: Janice Grann announced that the Program Committee is planning a survey to better understand the types of programs of interest to members.

Benevolence: Jennise Phillips reported that the committee will be proposing that Benevolence and Community Service avoid duplicate contributions, and that we spend more of the money we have on hand. Both issues will be discussed at the Board meeting on Thursday, June 8.

Announcements

Ivona McCrary announced that the kazoo band will rehearse for the 4th of July parade on Wednesday, June 14. She asked for more volunteers to help decorate the float, which will be done in the parking lot behind Casa Rosa.

Cheryl Betterly reminded members that volunteers are needed for the June 17 Adopt-A-Highway cleanup between mile markers five and six, at 8 am. Volunteers are also needed to help clean up after the 4th of July parade, July 8 at 8 am.

Linda Lockett announced that honorary member Ruth Ives passed away on May 5 at age 100. Her photo is in our 2023 yearbook/directory at the end of the member listings.

Happy Dollars

Linda wished happy birthday to all members who have June birthdays. There were six Happy Dollar announcements.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:33.

Respectfully submitted,

Jean Roberts, Recording Secretary

JARDINEROS de PLACITAS
REGULAR MEETING MINUTES

May 3, 2023

Opening Meeting

Vice President Janice Grann called the meeting to order at 9:30 am.

Janice welcomed members and guests, and she reminded everyone that the 26th Annual Placitas Studio Tour is scheduled for May 13-14. She also read the list of talented Jardineros members who will have their studios open.

Janice announced that our June 7 program at the library will be “Appraising Fine Art, Furnishings, and Antiques,” by Ellen Castrone. Janice also urged members to consider participating in our November 1 “Show Your Stuff!” program. In addition to arts and handicrafts, members could demonstrate a skill or whatever “stuff” they would like to show.

Program

Dianna Stone introduced today’s speaker, Deanna Encinias, who presented the program, “The Cultural Roots and History of Flamenco.” Deanna brought five of her students to demonstrate flamenco dancing, singing, and musical skills. She noted that the annual flamenco festival in Albuquerque in June is the largest such festival in the world outside of Spain.

Business Meeting

After a short break, Janice opened the business meeting at 10:48 am.

Janice thanked Refreshment Committee members Ivona McCrary, Linda Heath, Sharon Arthur, Cindy Bourne, and committee chair Jane Garland.

She also thanked greeters Ted Heath and Joanne Ruhl.

Officer and Committee Reports

Minutes: The minutes of the April meeting were approved.

Treasurer: Nancy Evans reported that the checking account balance as of the end of April was $9,860.03.

Corresponding Secretary: Sharon Arthur read a thank you note from the president of St. Vincent de Paul.

Membership: Janice noted that membership is now 164, including five new members and two returning members. She also mentioned our new Plant Whisperers interest group for green- or brown-thumb gardeners. Anyone interested in joining should contact Cindy Bourne, Linda Hughes, or Dianna Stone. Linda Hughes noted that links for resources and other information are on the Jardineros website.

Community Service: Margaret Bruch announced that our collection for June will be for Watermelon Mountain Ranch, organized by Jacque Moise and Tina Thomas. Representatives plan to attend our next meeting and will bring a small dog.

History: Cathryn Richards said she will present the History Book at the June meeting, but she thanked Wendy Ingram and Karen Croxton for photos and Cheryl Betterly for her assistance with the book.

Announcements

Ivona McCrary announced that she has 24 kazoos for the 4th of July parade, and the new kazoo ensemble will hold their only practice in June. She encouraged members to participate.

Nancy Durrell is housebound after a hip replacement and a subsequent broken hip. Members are urged to reach out to her.

Sandy Liakus announced that the first Canyon Blues and Jazz performances at the Merc parking lot begin May 7.

Happy Dollars

Janice wished happy birthday to all members who have May birthdays. There were seven Happy Dollar announcements.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:04.

Respectfully submitted,

Jean Roberts, Recording Secretary

JARDINEROS de PLACITAS
REGULAR MEETING MINUTES

April 5, 2023

Opening Meeting

President Linda Lockett called the meeting to order at 9:30 am.

Linda welcomed members and guests, and she introduced representatives from the recipient organization for the April Community Service donation, God's Little Angels. This organization helps children in need and their families through St. Vincent de Paul.

Vice President Janice Grann announced that our May 3 program at the library will be "The Cultural Roots and History of Flamenco," by a flamenco instructor and some of her students.

Program

Janice introduced today's speaker, Glenn Harper, Range and Wildlife Division Manager of the Santa Ana Pueblo, who presented the program, "Land and Wildlife Preservation on the Santa Ana Pueblo."

Business Meeting

After a short break, Linda opened the business meeting at 11:30 am.

Linda thanked Refreshment Committee members Carol Horner, Nancy Evans, Elaine Carey, Ruth Clark, Jennise Phillips, and committee chair Jane Garland.

She also thanked greeters Susan Brown and Barbara Hill.

Officer and Committee Reports

Minutes: The minutes of the March meeting were approved.

Treasurer: Nancy Evans reported that the checking account balance as of the end of March was $10,099.03. Nancy also presented the proposed Jardineros budget for 2023 for online voting in the next few days. She noted that the proposed budget includes rent, now that the credit we carried has been depleted. The proposed budget also includes an additional $275 for the website. The net shortfall is $27, which she expects will be covered during the year by miscellaneous income such as Happy Dollars. Linda noted that the budget also includes a tentative expenditure for AV equipment, which would be paid from remaining memorial donations in our savings account.

Membership: Linda noted that our membership is slowly increasing.

Community Service: Tricia Lund announced that we have received $715 so far for the April collection for God's Little Angels, the St. Vincent de Paul program providing children's necessities for families in need.

Announcements

Ivona McCrary encouraged members to participate in the Placitas Fourth of July parade.

Kathy Hays announced that the Bernalillo Indian Arts Festival, May 6-7, is looking for volunteers. Contact Sue Overley or Kathy Hays.

The Placitas Studio Tour is on Mother's Day Weekend, May 13-14, 10 am-5 pm. A preview art exhibit will begin April 28 at the Placitas Library.

Happy Dollars

Linda wished happy birthday to all members who have April birthdays. There were two Happy Dollar announcements.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:00.

Respectfully submitted,

Jean Roberts, Recording Secretary

JARDINEROS de PLACITAS
REGULAR MEETING MINUTES

March 1, 2023

Opening Meeting

President Linda Lockett called the meeting to order at 9:30 am.

Linda welcomed attendees and reminded members that meetings from April through September will be held at the Placitas Community Library. She also noted that the Las Placitas Presbyterian Church celebrated its 129th birthday this past weekend.

Vice President Janice Grann announced that our April program at the library will be “Land and Wildlife Preservation on the Santa Ana Pueblo,” with speaker Glenn Harper, the Range and Wildlife Division Manager at the Pueblo. This program was originally scheduled for July, but the April and July programs are switching.

Program

Lisa Avila introduced today’s speakers, Lieutenant Shannon Farrell, of Sandoval Fire Department’s public health and safety outreach, and her husband David Farrell. Shannon spoke about the fire department’s K9 search and rescue program, and their dogs demonstrated their skills.

Business Meeting

After a short break, Linda opened the business meeting at 11:15 am.

Linda thanked Refreshment Committee members, Betty Vreeke, Kathy Friedman, Susan Craycraft, Tricia Lund, Julie Laub, Kathy Hays, and committee chair Jane Garland.

She also thanked greeters Jan O’Boyle and Jodi Lawrence.

Officer and Committee Reports

Minutes: The minutes of the February meeting were approved.

Treasurer: Nancy Evans reported that the checking account balance as of the end of February was $10,097.03, which included $314 in income from dues and donations. The savings account balance as of the end of February was $3,783.85.

Membership: Pam Crisculo introduced three new members: Judd and Lisa Fink and Robert Grann.

Community Service: Margaret Bruch announced that we received additional donations for the February collection for Rebuilding Together Sandoval County. The total collected was $1,246. The April collection will be for God's Little Angels, the St. Vincent de Paul program providing children's necessities for families in need.

Announcements

The Trippers event for March 30 at Jane Butel's School of Southwest Cooking still has a few openings.

Happy Dollars

Linda wished happy birthday to all members who have March birthdays. Happy Dollar announcements netted $13.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:30.

Respectfully submitted,

Jean Roberts, Recording Secretary

JARDINEROS de PLACITAS
REGULAR MEETING MINUTES

February 1, 2023

Opening Meeting

President Linda Lockett called the meeting to order at 9:30 am.

Linda welcomed attendees and reminded members to pick up their 2023 yearbooks. After the meeting, all remaining yearbooks will be available at the library for pickup.

Margaret Bruch introduced Brad Wood, Board President of Rebuilding Together Sandoval County, the recipient of this month's Community Service collection. Mr. Wood described the mission of his nonprofit organization, which provides home rehabilitation for county residents in need, and he urged us to let his organization know of anyone needing their help.

Lisa Avila announced that our March 1 program will be about the Sandoval County Fire Department's K9 Search and Rescue capabilities, featuring Lieutenant Shannon Farrell and a couple of her canine colleagues.

Program

Lisa Avila introduced today's program speaker, Katie Dix, Executive Director of the Friends of the Valle de Oro National Wildlife Refuge.

Business Meeting

After a short break, Linda opened the business meeting at 10:55 am.

Linda thanked Refreshment Committee members, Karen Croxton, Nancy Evans, Barbara Hill, Marilyn Levandoski, Kathy Hays, and committee chair Jane Garland.

She also thanked greeters Eleanor Juggle and Margaret McHenney.

Officer and Committee Reports

Minutes: The minutes of the January 2023 meeting were approved.

Treasurer: Nancy Evans corrected the checking account balance reported previously for the end of December, which didn't include a few checks; the correct balance is $10,235.71. The checking account balance as of the end of January was $9,893.03, which included $433 in income from dues and Happy Dollars, and $775.68 in expenses for the 2023 yearbooks and the history book. The savings account balance as of the end of January was $3,782.25.

Corresponding Secretary: Sharon Arthur read a thank you note from the Placitas Community Library Board for the baskets of wine contributed to the library fundraiser. The basket project was coordinated by the Community Service Committee.

Membership: Linda Lockett announced that we now have 154 paid members, including four new members who joined in January. We ended 2022 with 168 members, including 20 who joined during the year.

Community Service: Margaret Bruch announced that we collected $1,055 today for donations to Rebuilding Together Sandoval County.

Announcements

Kelli Ballengee announced that she is forming a hot air balloon interest group if members are interested.

Happy Dollars

Linda wished happy birthday to all members who have February birthdays. There were seven Happy Dollar announcements.

Respectfully submitted,

Jean Roberts, Recording Secretary

JARDINEROS de PLACITAS
REGULAR MEETING MINUTES

January 11, 2023

Opening Business

President Linda Lockett called the meeting to order at 9:30 am.

Linda welcomed attendees and reminded everyone that our meeting schedule for 2023 will be January through March and October through December at the Presbyterian Church, and April through September at the Placitas Community Library. She also reminded everyone to pick up their 2023 yearbooks.

Linda introduced Vice President Janice Grann, who highlighted our February 1 meeting program, “Valle de Oro: A Wildlife Refuge in Our Own Backyard.” Janice turned to Dianna Stone to introduce the speaker for January.

Program

Dianna introduced today’s speaker and program, Bob Kanegis, on “The Essence of Storytelling.” He noted that Liz Mangual was unable to join him today.

Business Meeting

After a short break, Linda re-opened the business meeting at 11:05 am.

Past President Karen Cox installed the 2023 Jardineros officers: Linda Lockett, President; Janice Grann, Vice President; Jean Roberts, Recording Secretary; Sharon Arthur, Corresponding Secretary; and Nancy Evans, Treasurer.

Linda thanked Refreshment Committee members Margaret McHenney, Cheryl Betterly, Linda Hardin, Vicky Kimmel, and committee chair Jane Garland.

She also thanked greeters Elaine Carey and Vicky Kimmel.

Officer and Committee Reports

Minutes: The minutes of the November and December 2022 meetings were approved.

Membership: Ruth Clark announced two new members, Amy Atkinson and Katie Thomas. Amy has already agreed to chair the Delectable Dining interest group, and Linda noted that chairs are still needed for Crafts and Amigos de Cine.

Community Service: Marilyn Levandoski announced that the February collection will be for Rebuilding Together Sandoval County. Linda also thanked Marilyn and Susan Craycraft for chairing the committee in 2022. She also noted that Jardineros members contributed more than $7,200 for six non-profit organizations in 2022, in addition to the $6,550 donated via our Benevolence Committee.

Linda also recognized the outstanding work by Karen Croxton on our 2023 yearbook and by Kathy Hays on Noche Encantada held in December. She added that Jane Schultz has agreed to take over the yearbook duties.

Announcements

The Trippers planning meeting is scheduled for January 19 in the Gracie Lee Room of the library. The Trippers will also enjoy their annual Santa Fe Cooking School event on January 26.

Happy Dollars

Linda wished happy birthday to all members who have January birthdays. There were two happy dollar announcements.

Respectfully submitted,

Jean Roberts, Recording Secretary